CCLI #7130972

Arrangement - INTRO, V1, CH, V2, CH, INSTRUMENTAL, B, B, CH, CH, OUTRO

VERSE 1

Just like you spoke the earth to form
Just like you knew the night and dawn
You wrote down every moment here
With perfect hand you penned my song

PRE-CHORUS

The work that you started
You'll see it through
Faithful to complete
It's what you do

CHORUS

Your love it writes a better story
Has the final word, beginning and the end
And I'll trust here and unto glory
God you're always for me
I will rise again

VERSE 2

You're still the author and perfecter
When my heart can't trace the lines
Through wilderness I'll learn to follow you God
In your shadow I will hide

PRE-CHORUS

The work that you started
You'll see it through
Faithful to complete
It's what you do

CHORUS

Your love it writes a better story
Has the final word, beginning and the end
And I'll trust here and unto glory
God you're always for me
I will rise again
I will rise again
I will rise again
I will rise again
I will rise again

BRIDGE

No promise is empty
No trial in vain
For yours is the victory
And victory your name
No word you have spoken
Will be put to shame
For yours is the victory
And victory your name

No promise is empty
No trial in vain
For yours is the victory
And victory your name
No word you have spoken
Will be put to shame
For yours is the victory
And victory your name

Your love it writes a better story
Has the final word, beginning and the end
And I'll trust here and unto glory
God you're always for me
I will rise again

OUTRO

I will rise again
I will rise again
Jesus I'll see you face to face
I will rise again
'Cause you're the miracle maker, the miracle maker
And I'll see you face to face
And I will rise again oh Jesus
I will rise again
