

Jesus, The Treasure

Bryan Fowler, Erik Nieder

Psalms 19:9-14, Matthew 6:19-34; 16:24-27, Philippians 3:7-14

VERSE 1

Take all my worship, I bring it all
All of my riches, I count as loss
I lose my life to find you, to know my father's heart
I lay it on the altar, 'cause I know that you are

CHORUS

Sweeter than honey, more precious than gold
Over and over you satisfy my soul
You are my portion, my heart's delight
Jesus, the treasure of my life

VERSE 2

Take all my idols, shatter them all
All of my worries, I let them fall
Be my sole obsession, the keeper of my heart
I live to know your presence, 'cause I know that you are

CHORUS

Sweeter than honey, more precious than gold
Over and over you satisfy my soul
You are my portion, my heart's delight
Jesus, the treasure of my life

BRIDGE

There is none beside
There is no one like you
I give my life to know you
I wanna know your heart

BRIDGE

There is none beside
There is no one like you
I give my life to know you
I wanna know your heart

BRIDGE

There is none beside
There is no one like you
I give my life to know you
I wanna know your heart

FINAL BRIDGE

There is none beside
There is no one like you
I give my life to know you
'Cause you are

FINAL CHORUS

Sweeter than honey, more precious than gold
Over and over you satisfy my soul
You are my portion, my heart's delight
Jesus, the treasure of my life
